Fighting in Balkans Still Limited to the Montenegro Frontier.

MONTENEGRINS PAY DEARLY FOR VICTORY

Report That Berana Is Captured After Ten Days Fighting.

THINK SNOWFALL WILL END THE WAR

Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—Discussing the Balkan war situation, Mr. H. Fife, special correspondent for the Montreal Star and London Financial News, tonight, expressed the belief that the fighting in the Balkans stopped by the first fall of snow in the Balkan passes, because of the difficulty of transporting food for the horses, without which military movements on any great scale are impossible.

Mr. Fife expects to leave for the seat of war on his return to London.

Mr. Fife expects to leave for the seat of war on his return to London.

The fact that Italy is now free to enter the conference will greatly strengthen the Balkan cause, and is calculated to make the Balkan states more amenable to pressure. The future status of the Balkans, which cannot be definitely known, it is reported, will be virtual annexation by Greece, is now engaging the attention of the powers.

The rumor that Bulgaria has officially declared war has not been confirmed, but it is reported after hard fighting have captured Berana but it is reported that there will be a peace in the Balkans.

Undoubtedly this is due to the Montenegrin

VERIFY THE STORIES OF STEFANSSON

Arctic Missionaries Tell In Montreal of the Blonde Eskimos.

MARVELLOUS WORK OF MISSIONARIES

Christian Eskimos Are Now Being Sent To The New Tribe.

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Great enthusiasm was aroused at a meeting of the Canadian Council of the church in Canada today by speeches by Bishop Stringer of the Yukon and Rev. Dr. Macmillan of the Northwest in regard to the much talked of tribe of blonde Eskimos recently discovered in the Coppermine river in the Arctic district, within the Arctic circle.

Such has been cast upon the minds of the people of the Yukon, but proofs of the most convincing character were laid before the meeting, including an actual photograph of the very people concerning whom the stories had been told.

Referring to the alleged recommendation of Mr. Stefansson that the natives be kept away from these people the bishop told the royal party was taken on a motor tour about town.

SURROUNDED.

Colonel Sam Hughes and Mr. Armand Lavergne are both in Ottawa, supposedly telling the Premier what he must and must not do about the naval question, according to their several and divergent opinions of the matter. Now if the Suffragette leaders would go into action at the Capital, Mr. Gordon would know what kind of a time the Sultan of Turkey is having.

NOT LANQUISHING.

The Ogilvie Flour Mills Company had a profit last year of more than a half million dollars, according to the annual statement just issued. That particular company does not seem to be badly in need of subsidies from the Dominion treasury. And while they, and others, have achieved much splendid results without bonus, there is no certainty or where would be the justice of subsidizing new-comers in the same line of business?

ANOTHER WARNING.

Sir Donald Mann has added his testimony as to the imminence of a grain blockade when the frost has closed the lakes to navigation. Sir Donald is not a particular favorite with the Canadian press, where none exist. He is as a railway builder and owner virtually interested in keeping for the Canadian routes all the traffic they can handle. Moreover, he has just returned to Toronto from an extended tour through the Western country, with whose conditions he has been personally familiar for more than thirty years.

Those in the eastern part of the Dominion who have been treating the forecasts of a Western grain blockade as only the gloomy forebodings of interested parties will perhaps take Sir Donald's word. Ministers also, who seem to have been putting off this matter as they do all matters of importance, may even be moved to make an early effort to secure permission for the forwarding of Canadian grain by United States routes. If they do not press for this permission, then, at least, they will not be able to plead after a while that the situation was unknown to them.

FACTORIES FOR EDMONTON.

Two new factories have been added recently to the program of Edmonton's industrial progress. They are welcome, both as prospective additions to the city's manufacturing resources and as indicating that if the coming of factories to the city has been slow it is none the less a movement actually in process. And there are reasons to hope that this desirable kind of "invasion" will be carried on more energetically in the future than it has been in the past.

Industrially Edmonton—like all other Western cities—is not strong in comparison to its population, wealth and commerce. That it has attained such proportions without the assistance in a large degree of the industrial factor affords a standard for gauging what its progress and prospects will be when it becomes a manufacturing center, as well as a trading city. With the extension of railway lines into the vast region to the north and west, and the opening of those presently unoccupied areas, Edmonton, which must be the centre whence the supplies of this new empire will be drawn—should also become the place where many kinds of these supplies will be manufactured.

THE "EMERGENCY" LIBEL.
 It is not expected that the tentative naval proposal of the Government will be submitted to Parliament before the New Year. The so-called "emergency" for which our contribution is to be levied seems to be not nearly so emergent as it might be. Britain has pulled through for a whole year since Mr. Borden got into power without a monetary donation from the Dominion, and there is no visible sign of distress. And quite rightly the Admiralty can hold out for another three months without our pittance.

The fact of the matter is there is no "emergency" and has never been any "emergency" so far as money is concerned. It is as a gesture of frank Britain and world-wide concern over Britain and its allies that the Admiralty thinks. Quite rightly—the Admiralty can hold out for another three months without our pittance.

The fine fact of the matter is there is no "emergency" and has never been any "emergency" so far as money is concerned. It is as a gesture of frank Britain and world-wide concern over Britain and its allies that the Admiralty thinks. Quite rightly—the Admiralty can hold out for another three months without our pittance.

The word "emergency" has been taken off on the contribution proposal in the hope of recommending it to the more favorable consideration of the Canadian people. It is recognized that Canadians do not desire to be placed in the position of a tax-payer, especially, but would prefer to follow the British lead and instinct of undertaking the development of their own means of defense at their own cost and upon their own responsibility; always with the intention to mind that in time of strain these means should be at the service of the Empire. Pride is held in reverence for self-called consistency; however, makes Mr. Borden unwilling to undertake the construction of a Canadian navy after what he and some of his friends said about a project of that kind undertaken by their opponents. He considers it necessary to appear to be different; and the only alternative to a Canadian navy is the contribution to the up-keep of the British navy. In hope that the Canadian public will forget their natural dislike to giving up the handling of their own money and responsibilities, the word "emergency" is added to the military contribution, the evident being to lead the public to suppose that Britain is in some sort of straits from which it will be extricated by a cheque from Canada. The imputation is alibed upon the financial integrity of Great Britain.

Remarked on the Side.

Rev. Herbert K. Gordon on Sunday evening told his hearers that God wants to be in our civic affairs and in our commercial life. Perhaps, Captain Armand Lavergne will go to the Seafar to Observe Tactics and get information for Canadian defense Department.

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Hon. Sam Hughes has finally decided to withdraw as Minister of Armies, Lavergne, his son and adjutant of the Sixty-first Montgomery regiment, to be sent as a Canadian to the Balkans to assist in the military operations of the Balkan State in the war against Turkey.

The young Nationalist leader, Captain Lavergne, is a good soldier and a personal friend of the minister of militia.

Captain Lavergne will probably be sent to the Balkans within a few days. Col. Hughes will also probably despatch an English-speaking officer to accompany Captain Lavergne and collect pointers in the war game for the Canadian forces.

Col. Hughes left for London yesterday to attend the marriage of his daughter, Miss Ruby Hughes, there on Saturday next to Mr. Douglas M. Green of the New York branch of the Bank of Montreal.

It is rather a curious thing that, while it is illegal to attempt to commit suicide, there is no law to prevent persons putting coal on the gas. A man was a queer old fellow, but he was a queer old fellow.

The quiet way is sometimes the best. Two masked men with a revolver only managed to secure nine dollars from a man who had been shot Saturday night, while a pickpocket pocketed fifty-three dollars single-handed.

A man accused of being a vagrant was told in the police court that if he was a vagrant he was not allowed to go to prison. Some vagrants, however, would consider that getting a job was a queer kind of freedom.

At the same time, while exasperating the police, he was told that if he was a vagrant he was not allowed to go to prison.

Sam, the man who has a mean neck, has been put to good duty, but to land a "right" deliberately on an old Canadian, the police Lieutenant, and of the death threats he received after he told the district attorney of the case.

John McIntyre, chief counsel for the defense, has not intended to call any witness on his behalf, but he can call any witness. He indicated his line of defense for the first time yesterday, when he was cross-examined by the defense, and he was asked if he had any objection to the cross-examination of Sam Scheeps that a clique of gamblers organized brought about the murder of Rosenthal.

The attempted assassination of ex-President Roosevelt may be held to have proved two things, which hitherto been the subject of some discussion. One is that it is a natural thing to commit one's self to a particular cause or principle, and the other is that the Canadian Northern has the most serious affairs in the world.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—The Canadian Northern officials announced that the company had sold its 100,000th locomotive and dictated the first hundred miles of the Canadian Northern railway. The new engine, which cost $50,000, will be larger than the company's stations at either Saskatoon or Port Arthur.

HIS CONDITION IS NOT CONSIDERED CRITICAL

Colonel Roosevelt, no longer in hospital, has improved in condition and is regarded as greater ease than at any time since the hand of John Schrank was shot into his abdomen.

He is now able to sit up in bed without assistance.

Physicians examined him to-day and found him in a complete condition.

A laboratory examination found his pulse, respiration and temperature closer than it had been at any time since he was shot.

and next to his usual point of concern over his condition and the extremely conservative results have been a decided relief to his family.

It is now believed that he will be able to leave the hospital in a week or two.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel and Theodore Jr. arrived early this morning to see the colonel and were met by a number of policemen and members of the public.

They were shown into the colonel's room and were seated at his side.

expensive gift.

The Essentials

What makes a good Shorthand Course? Certainly not shorthand alone. If so, one could be a stenographer in a few weeks. For you can learn enough shorthand
in a time. Our course includes regular daily
instruction in Correspondence,
Spelling, Penmanship,
and an A1 course in Actual Office Work. That's one reason why our graduates are good stenographers. Address:

JEWISH BACK TO LAND MOVEMENT HAS BEGUN

Seeers of August Issue for Future of Race in Canada. Here is of Large Cities—Families Will Be Assembled to Come to Western Canada.

The Jews, who for centuries have made up an integral part of the life of most city communities, making their living and communities, making their living and trading, are tired of city life and anxious to go back to the land and the quiet, simple, rural life of the peasant home of their patriarchal forebears. This, at any rate, is the opinion of the rabbi, Dr. Max Maxfield, rabbi and lecturer, who is in the city with the intention of meeting and lecturing the people.

A propaganda has been on foot
in the States and in Eastern Canada to induce Jews to come to Western Canada. This, however, has not been more thoughtful among the Jewish people than the welfare of the proportion living in rural surroundings, as a set-off to the general tentation.

One reason for this tendency,
no doubt, is the fact that the Jew
has a natural aptitude for the opportunities of keeping up his religious aspirations, when he moves into the country. When in Canada the opportunity for the Jewish people to live by attendance at the synagogue ends only in the cities.

The rabbi, Dr. Max Maxfield, wants to be able to attend a Jewish synagogue in the country.

There are many Jews in the country, but the rabbi has no information as to the number of the Jewish population of Montreal at $6,000. He makes the statement that there are already 6,000 Jewish farmers in Western Canada and about 19,000 in the western states of America.

UNLOAD HEAVY APPARATUS.
The unloading of the heavy

new of the new work on First street.

The end of the car was drawn up on a

INJUNCTION DISMISSED

Wilson Taken on Behalf of License
Commissioners to Set Aside Injunction Obtained by Liquor Interests

Hearing on Oct. 25.

Judgment was given by Justice
Walsh yesterday afternoon in the motion aside the injunction obtained by the liquor interests restraining the commission from taking action against the so the injunction must stand until the

in their defense before October 25th

able to do so in October.
